MINISTRY UPDATE

A PERSONAL MESSAGE

After preaching a camp meeting in Arkansas and just this week talking with two pastors, one in Illinois, another in North Carolina, my soul was deeply refreshed. This wonderful group of preachers expressed the same concern I have with the drift and compromise of so many churches today. They encouraged my heart by their conviction and commitment to God's Word. Think about it for a moment. If several homes in a community were on fire with families trapped inside, yet the firemen were satisfied to clean and polish the fire trucks back at the station, would they be faithful firemen? Are they doing their duty? Neither is a pastor faithful that preaches Bible, but omits text containing controversial issues sensitive to our day. Thank the Lord I know some men who lovingly yet boldly proclaim all that "thus saith the Lord" contains for His people today. That has been the theme of The Voice in the Wilderness - Contending for Fundamental Christianity and Contending for American Freedom. Your prayers and gifts make it possible for us to stand faithfully on God's Word. Thank you for your faithfulness to the LORD and friendship with The Voice in the Wilderness.

For Christ and Souls,
Ronnie L. Williamson
