

Containing the Freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

Write a newspaper article for Benjamin Franklin's Pennsylvania Gazette about events that led to the writing of the U.S. Constitution. See "What was the Path to the Constitution?" in The Constitution Defender for facts that you should include. Be sure to start with an attention-getting title!

by

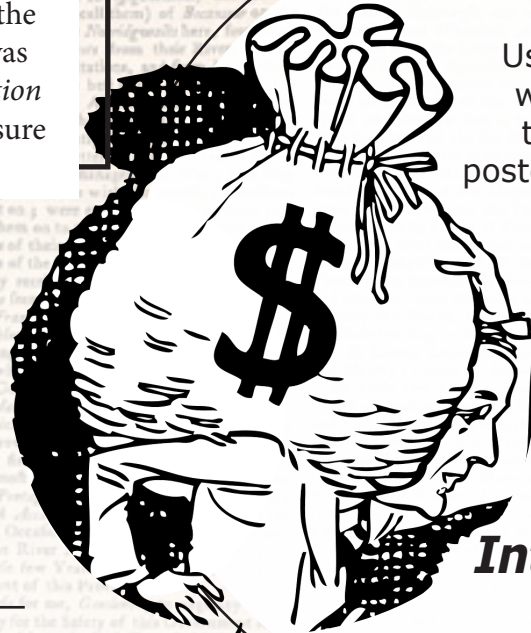

Use your name or an alias (another name)

Design a Poster

Use words with a cartoon to create a poster that Benjamin Franklin might have printed in his newspaper.

The topic is:

The Intolerable Acts

[Faint background text from the original document, including parts of letters and newspaper articles.]

Horizontal lines for writing a response to the prompt.

"Join, or Die" is one of the earliest known political cartoons printed in a newspaper. Published by Benjamin Franklin on May 9, 1754 in his Pennsylvania Gazette, each segment of the snake represents the colonies and calls for them to join together in unity for freedom.

